TODIC	REPORT NO.
IOT IO	Military Information from Burg
(1 EVALUATION	25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1	in night of the second of the 057/4
DATE OF CONTENT	1 日
DATE OBTAINED	DATE PREPARED_ 9 March 1953_	an reactal street was REFERENCES
PAGES 1	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	reine al Service
REMARKS		Berket month on co
CONTRACTOR TO THE CONTRACTOR CONT		annerson i pe ntero s en el accessementes s esculativa i consignica y
SOURCE	25X1
	eptered the installation, coming from a southwestern direction. Severa groups of soldiers received training in firing and maintenanced about 12 trucks in the barracks yard. Motor vohicles seen entering and leavi
2.	On 18 February, the Artillerie Maserna, east of Zerbster Strasse, was occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers.	_
2.,	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at	§ 2:
2.,	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at	_
	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another sou in early February 1953, no changes appear to have occurred in the	2
X 1	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another source.	2:
2. X1	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another sou in early February 1953, no changes appear to have occurred in the	2
X1	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another sou in early February 1953, no changes appear to have occurred in the	2
X1	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another sou in early February 1953, no changes appear to have occurred in the	2
X1	occupied by about 1,000 troops. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. About 60 to 30 soldiers were seen drilling and practicing marksmanship in the barracks area. Other soldiers were maintenancing about 20 trucks. About 250 to 300 soldiers practiced marksmanship in the area south of the installation. In the east section of the training area, troops received instruction on at least six guns, which source believed were 122-mm howitzers. Comment, Compared with preceding reports by this and another sou in early February 1953, no changes appear to have occurred in the	2